

LEGISLATION ON THE WEB

Legislative information is now increasingly available on the Internet. Listed below are key websites worth reviewing.

A. UNION WEBSITES

AFA www.afanet.org
AFL-CIO www.aflcio.org

B. GOVERNMENT WEBSITES

Legislative Sites

Thomas thomas.loc.gov
U.S. Capitol www.aoc.gov
U.S. House of Representatives www.house.gov
U.S. Senate www.senate.gov
E-mail addresses for Congress lcweb.loc.gov/global/legislative/email.html#email

Executive Branch Sites

White House www.whitehouse.gov
FAA www.faa.gov
Department of Transportation www.dot.gov
National Transportation Safety Board www.nts.gov

News Information Sites

Congressional Quarterly www.cq.com
AllPolitics (Time, CNN) www.allpolitics.com
C-SPAN www.c-span.org
Roll Call www.rollcall.com

C. POLITICAL PARTY WEBSITES

Democratic Party Headquarters www.democrats.org/party
Democratic Senate Campaign Committee www.dscc.com
Democratic Congressional Campaign Committee www.dccc.org
Republican National Committee www.rnc.org
Republican Senatorial Campaign Committee www.nrsc.org
Republican Congressional Campaign Committee www.nrcc.org